1. We can assure you that the length of time that has elapsed since receipt of reference (1) is no indication of the forgetfulness on our part. We have repeatedly prodded ZIPPER to obtain the desired information. ZIPPER has, in turn, has been awaiting response from various field offices and contacts believed knowledgeable.

2. With reference to the specific request for material suitable for the UK, we have nothing. We can only suggest that the UK be told that we shall be happy to search files and memories on persons named by the UK as likely candidates. Convincing bona fide documentation to back up charges, however, is not something on which we can offer much hope.

3. However, ZIPPER's memo #8160, copy attached, appears to furnish interesting material for at least a start in this direction by the UK, in relation to East German and Baltic area personnel. Although the memo itself should be read for details, we are listing key points below (not for UK):

a. * CHALIK, Roman - Born 28 June 1907 in Koissnitz/Prussia; residing Berlin-Hiedersbachhausen, later Berlin; (U) under K.D. since 1949; was founder of K.D. (Revolutionary Governmental Organization), he became a C.S. - tape agent ca. 1954. Present status not clear.

b. * DAITANEKIS, Jonas - Born ca. 1916, Lithuanian lawyer; in 1940 worked for German security police in Kovno area and apparently also for SHIS ("KMD"); he was reported in at end 1945 as an "U.S." interpreter in a Soviet concentration camp in Posen. It is believed that he might be working for Soviet or Polish IS, probably in Poland. His wife was in West Germany after the war, in Guesburg then Augsburg, disappearing in 1946.

c. * MARTINIS, Jonas - Born ca. 1908, mechanic-engine fitter ("Motorm"); he was secretary of the CP city committee in Kovno in 1940-1941, then he fled
